

Data Protection Privacy Statement – Responding to requests made in accordance with the Deprivation of Liberty Safeguards

In order to deliver services to the citizens and communities in Bedford Borough, it is necessary for the Council to collect, gather and process personal data about residents, staff and other individuals. Bedford Borough Council is committed to protecting your personal data when you use its services and/or correspond with it.

The Council has registered as a Data Controller with the Information Commissioner's Office. This registration can be viewed on the ICO website (opens in a new window) Registration Number Z5916725.

As a Data Controller, the Council sets out the purposes and methods for processing information and ensures safeguards over any personal and special category information it processes.

The sections below explain the arrangements we have in place to protect the information entrusted to the Council.

In relation to Responding to requests made in accordance with the Deprivation of Liberty Safeguards Bedford Borough Council will process your personal data for the following processing purposes:

This privacy notice relates to all requests made in accordance with the Deprivation of Liberty Safeguards. This is not an exhaustive list, but is likely to include:

Personal data including:

Name, age, date of birth, address, ethnic origin, marital status and diagnosis;
Information on significant others, for example, family/friends, Lasting Power of Attorneys and involved professionals (this will include name, address and telephone numbers);
Information on the person's personal circumstances and which will determine whether a person is or is not being deprived of liberty.

Assessment information will determine whether a person meets all the necessary requirements to deprive a person of liberty; authorisation will be granted for those persons who meet the criteria and where it is considered to be in the person's best interests.

All documentation, assessments and authorisations will be stored in the Adult Social Care database and on the Council's computer system, which is accessible to designated persons only.

It is processing this personal data by virtue of the following Lawful Basis:

Consent of the data subject, Compliance with a legal obligation, Protecting the vital interests of a data subject or other person (life or death situation), Performance of a task carried out in the public interest

Personal data provided for Responding to requests made in accordance with the Deprivation of Liberty Safeguards may be shared with, or obtained from the following organisations (in addition to any other disclosure required by a Court of Law or in response to a valid request by, normally, a law enforcement agency:
